IRONMONGERS' HALL

Ironmongers' Hall,
Shaftesbury Place,
Barbican, London EC2Y8AA

Utter the password at the discreet side door and enter a world where gangsters and their molls mix freely with flapper girls and high society. It is prohibition, and anything goes!

Wonder at your sumptuous surroundings as you are greeted in the magnificent Entrance Hall. Make your way to the Drawing Room for a welcome reception before a monocled butler calls you to the Ballroom for dinner.

Afterwards, join the good-time girls on the dance-floor as they do the Charleston or swig a Gin Fizz at the bar. Ladies, grab your pearls and feather boas. Guys don your Fedoras for a Christmas night to remember.
